If the company has not registered and announced the new address within due time despite having left the announced and registered address, this case will be considered as the grounds for termination for the company. If the company opens a branch, then such branches shall be registered in the Trade Registry and announced in the Turkish Trade Registry Gazette.

Article 5 : TERM OF COMPANY

The company is established for an indefinite period and it ceases to exist due to legal reasons or by a decision to be made by the General Assembly under the respective provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code.

Article 6 : CAPITAL

The company has adopted the registered capital system according to the provisions of the Capital Market Code and has initiated this system by the permission of the Capital Market Board dated 20.08.1992 and numbered 454.

The registered capital of the company is TRY 250.000.000 (two hundred and fifty million Turkish Liras). Such capital is divided in 25.000.000.000 (twenty five billion) shares, each with the value of Kr 1 (one Kuruş).

The registered capital ceiling permit issued by the Capital Market Board is valid for a period of 5 (five) years between 2021 and 2025. Even if the permitted registered capital ceiling is not achieved by late 2025, the Board of the Directors needs to seek authorization from the general assembly for a new period after receiving permit from the Capital Market Board for the previously permitted or new ceiling amount in order to make a decision for capital increment after year 2025. In case such authorization is not received, the company may not increment capital by the resolution of the board of directors.

The issued capital of the company is TRY 244.800.000 (two hundred and forty four million eight hundred thousand Turkish Liras). Such capital is divided into 24.480.000.000 (twentyfour billion four hundred and eighty million) shares, all of which are registered shares and all of which have a nominal value of Kr 1 (one Kuruş). The entire issued capital of the company of TRY 244.800.000 is subscribed and paid in full by the shareholders.

The Board of Directors may increment the capital by issuing registered shares with a nominal value of Kr 1 (one Kuruş) up to the registered capital ceiling provided above for years 2021 to 2025. In cases, where necessitated by the Capital Market Board regulations, the amount for the issued shares is received in cash and in advance. No new shares may be issued unless and until the issued shares are sold and their price is paid in full.

While making a decision to issue new shares, the Board of Directors may issue premium shares (over nominal value) and may limit the rights of the existing shareholders to purchase new shares.

The shares of the company are registered. The shares representing the capital shall be monitored and registered within the framework of the principles for registration.

2.92% of the shares in company, which is subject to the Foreign Direct Investment Code numbered 4875, belong to the foreign shareholders. Foreign shareholders participate in the capital increments by the rate specified above. The distribution of the shares between the local and foreign shareholders is as follows.

Shareholders	Number of Registered Shares	Share Amount (TL)	Share Ratio (%)
1- Foreign Shareholders
-Kagome Co.Ltd.	507.116.820	5.071.168,20	2,07
-Sumitomo Corp.	207.798.334	2.077.983,34	0,85
2- Other	23.765.084.846	237.650.848,46	97,08
TOTAL	24.480.000.000	244.800.000,00	100,00

Article 7 : PREFERRED SHARES FOR THE FOUNDERS

Considering the services and financial burdens before the company was founded, total 16 registered shares to benefit from a dividend of 5% are issued as mentioned in article 19, paragraph (c), and 6 of such shares are issued to Koç Holding A.Ş., 6 to Mr. Vehbi Koç and 4 to Türkiye Şeker Fabrikaları A.Ş.

Article 8 : ISSUING BONDS AND OTHER SECURITIES

The company may issue any bonds, convertible bonds, exchangeable bonds, gold, silver and platinum bonds, commercial bills, participation dividend certificates, profit and loss sharing certificates, other capital market tools to be acknowledged as tools for borrowing in nature by the Capital Market Board and any other capital market tools for sale to natural and legal persons inside or outside the country in accordance with the provisions of the Capital Market Code and other applicable legislation. The Board of Directors shall be authorized under the Capital Market Code to determine issuing and maximum amounts for issuing, type, term, interest rate and other conditions and to authorize the company's management in this respect. The arrangements given in the Capital Market Code and the relevant legislation shall be observed with respect to any issuing.

Article 9 : TRANSFER OF SHARES and ESTABLISHMENT OF USUFRUCT OVER THE SHARES

With respect to relations with the company, only people registered in the share book are considered as shareholders or holders of usufruct over the shares, with due consideration of the records kept by the Central Registry Agency.

Regulations of Capital Market Board shall be applicable with respect to the transfer of the Company's registered shares traded in the stock market.

Article 10 : COMPANY ACCEPTING OWN SHARES AS PLEDGE OR TAKING THEM OVER

The company may accept own shares as pledge as consideration and/or may acquire the same under the relevant articles of the Turkish Commercial Code, Capital Market Board regulations and other applicable legislation.

Article 11 : BOARD OF DIRECTORS, ELECTION OF THE MEMBERS and THE RESOLUTIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

All affairs and management of the company shall be performed by the Board of Directors to consist of minimum 5 (five) and maximum 13 (thirteen) people to be elected by the General Assembly within the regulations of the Turkish Commercial Code and Capital Market Board regulations under article 408 of the Turkish Commercial Code and provided that the non-transferable powers of the General Assembly shall be reserved. The number and qualifications of the independent members to be appointed at the Board of Directors shall be determined according to the regulations of the Capital Market Board on Corporate Governance Principles.

The members of the Board of Directors may be elected for a period of one year. Any member, whose period in office expires, may be reelected.

The General Assembly is authorized to determine the number of members of the Board of Directors and to elect the members. With respect to independent members, the General Assembly may replace the members of the Board of Directors at any time if considered necessary, provided that the requirements introduced by the Capital Market Board's Corporate Governance Principles shall be reserved.

In cases, where a position in the Board of Directors becomes vacant for any reason whatsoever, the Board of Directors temporarily elects a person to meet the legal requirements and submits to the approval of the first General Assembly to convene. If an independent member loses independence, resigns or becomes unable to serve, then the procedures determined in the Capital Market Board regulations shall be observed.

The quorum for meetings and decision-making shall be the absolute majority of the full number of the members. The requirements introduced by the Capital Market Board's Corporate Governance Principles shall be reserved.

Unless one of the members of the Board of Directors requires negotiations, the Board of Directors may also resolve through written approvals of the members for a proposal of a member on a certain issue. The resolutions made as such may also be made by receiving written approval at least majority of the full number of members. The same suggestion being made to all the members of the Board of Directors is a condition for validity of any such decisions made in this way. The approvals do not have to be contained on the same paper; however, all the papers bearing the approving signatures should be attached to the resolution book or should be transformed into a resolution containing signatures of all parties accepting and should be included in the resolution book so that such resolution may be valid.

Article 12 : BOARD OF DIRECTORS, DISTRIBUTION OF DUTIES, REPRESENTATION and TRANSFER OF MANAGEMENT

Unless the General Assembly appoints one Chairman of the Board of Directors, then the Chairman of the Board of Directors and a deputy chairman, who will act on behalf of the chairman when the chairman is absent, shall be elected by the Board of Directors. The deputy chairman of the Board of Directors is also authorized with respect to the powers granted by the Turkish Commercial Code to the chairman of the Board of Directors with respect to call for the meeting and information requests of the members of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may especially file any case, arbitration, any administrative and judicial actions, and any actions of settlement and release on behalf of the company, may propose cease of proceedings relating to bankruptcy and composition with creditors, may make donations, provided that the Capital Market Board Regulations shall be observed, may make commitments in foreign exchange, may provide guarantees, may create transfer and mortgage over real estates. If required, may authorize third parties in this respect.

The Board of Directors is authorized to partially or completely transfer management to one or more person(s) (executive director(s)), who may or may not be members of the Board of Directors, by internal regulations to be issued by the Board of Directors under article 367 of the Turkish Commercial Code. The Board of Directors determines the powers and responsibilities of the executives by such internal regulations and may transfer any powers and responsibilities granted to the Board of Directors to the relevant persons within the conditions, provisions and restrictions to be determined by the Board of Directors again and may amend or retrieve some or all of such powers in cases where considered necessary. Article 375 of the Turkish Commercial Code shall be reserved.

Within the framework of article 370 of the Turkish Commercial Code, the Board of Directors may leave the power of representation to one or more person(s), who doe(es) not have to be a shareholder or a member of the Board of Directors. However, in such a case, at least one member of the Board of Directors should be authorized to represent. Unless the Board of Directors makes a special resolution, any two members of the Board of Directors, who do not qualify as independent, may bind the company in all aspects by their joint signatures to be executed below the company's business name within the scope of the Capital Market Board regulations.

The Board of Directors is authorized to distribute the management and representation tasks as mentioned.

The Board of Directors may create committees or sub-committees of consulting, coordination, audit and of similar nature consisting of the members of the Board of Directors and/or people who are not members of the Board of Directors with respect to any matters considered as appropriate. The principles for meetings, operations and reporting for the members and chairmen of the committees shall be determined, arranged and modified by the Board of Directors.

Under article 378 of the Turkish Commercial Code, the board of directors is liable to establish a committee and set up and operate a system for early detection of the reasons that jeopardize the existence, development and continuity of the company, for implementation of the measures and means for such purpose and management and early detection of risks.

Article 13 : REMUNERATION FOR BOARD OF DIRECTORS and COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Within the scope of the respective provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and the capital Market Board regulations, the members of the Board of Directors and the committee members specified in article 12 can be paid certain financial rights in return for their services to the company as a member of the Board of Directors and committee, such as attendance fees, remunerations, bonuses or premiums. The form and amount for the payments to be made to the members of the board of directors for membership of the board of directors, including executive directors, shall be determined by the General Assembly, while the form and amount for the payments to be made to the committee members for committee membership shall be determined by the Board of Directors. For remunerations of independent members of the board of directors, share options or payment schedules based on performance in the company shall not be used.

Article 14 : AUDIT

The financial statements and annual activity report of the company are audited by an independent audit company according to the Audit Standards in Turkey. The General Assembly of the company is liable to elect such auditor according to the provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and the Capital Market Board regulations by not later than the fourth month of such year for each activity year.

Under article 366 of the Turkish Commercial Code, the Board of Directors may also establish an internal audit system under the auditor.

Article 15 : GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The following principles are applied for the General Assemblies.

a) Convocation Method: General Assemblies convene ordinarily or extraordinarily. The provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and the Capital Market Board regulations are applicable for convocation for such assemblies. General Assembly is held publicly, with stakeholders and media included without the right for speech.

b) Time for Assembly; Ordinary General Assembly convenes at least once a year and within not later than three months following the end of the account period of the company. During such assemblies, the matters that should be negotiated under the agenda are negotiated and decided.

Extraordinary General Assembly convenes in cases and at times as necessitated by the company affairs and according to the regulations of the Turkish Commercial Code, Capital Market Code and the provisions stipulated in these Articles of Association and resolves as necessary.

c) Voting Right; the shareholders attending the Ordinary and Extraordinary General Assemblies exercise their voting rights pro rata total nominal value of their shares. During General Assemblies, votes are cast explicitly. However, secret ballot is exercised upon application by shareholders owning at least one tenth of the shares represented at the assembly.

d) Representation; Provided that the Capital Market Board regulations shall be observed with respect to representation by proxy, the shareholders may have themselves represented by other shareholders or through an attorney that they appoint from without. The attorneys, who are also shareholders at the company, are authorized to vote for themselves as well as for the shares held by the shareholder that they represent. Provided that the appointments of representatives through the Electronic General Assembly System shall be reserved, the power of attorney to be issued in this respect should also be in writing.

e) Place of Assembly; The General Assembly meets at the head office of the company or at a suitable location in Ankara, Istanbul or Izmir.

f) Attendance to Meetings: Executive directors and at least one member of the board of directors, auditor, at least one official responsible to issue financial schedules and at least one official who is aware of a matter, who will provide explanations about issues that are special in nature, attend the General Assemblies. Among these people, if anybody, who is excluded from the group of people who has to attend the assembly is not present during the assembly, then the reason for their absence is announced to the General Assembly by the president of the assembly.

g) Presiding over the assembly; The President of the Assembly, who is authorized to preside over the negotiations is elected among the shareholders, while at least 1 (one) member authorized to collect votes and the Minutes Clerk shall be elected among the shareholders or from without.

h) Quorum for the Assembly and Decision-Making; The quorums for meeting and decision-making for all general assemblies of the company shall be the absolute majority of the capital, provided that the special quorums regulated in the Turkish Commercial Code and Capital Market Board regulations shall be reserved.

i) Internal Directive; The board of directors shall issue internal directive in accordance with the respective provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and regulations and communiqués issued within the framework of such Code, which directive shall include the rules regarding the principles and procedures of the General Assembly, and shall submit the same to the General Assembly for approval. The internal directive approved by the General Assembly shall be registered and announced in the Trade Registry.

i) Attendance to General Assembly in electronic platform; The shareholders, who are entitled to participate in the general assemblies of the company, may also attend the same in electronic platform under article 1527 of the Turkish Commercial Code. The company may establish the general assembly system, which will enable the holders of the right to attend the general assemblies in electronic platform, to explain their views, to make suggestions and to vote under the provisions of the Regulations Regarding General Assemblies of Incorporated Companies to be Held in Electronic Platform, and may also purchase services from systems created for such purposes. Under this provision of the articles of association, it is ensured that the holders of the right and their representatives can exercise their rights specified in the provisions of the said Regulations over the established system in all general assemblies to be held.

Article 16 : CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES

The Corporate Governance Principles made mandatory for implementation by the Capital Market Board shall be observed.

For actions considered important in terms of implementation of the Corporate Governance Principles and for any related party transactions involving the company and for issuing guarantees, pledges and mortgages to the favor of third parties, the regulations of the Capital Market Board regarding corporate governance shall be observed.

Any actions taken without observing the mandatory principles and any decisions by the Board of Directors to meet the same shall be invalid and shall be considered as in violation of the articles of association.

Article 17 : ANNOUNCEMENTS

The matters that should be announced by the company under the applicable laws are announced according to the respective provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code and any regulations and communiqués issued within the framework of such code and other applicable legislation. The matters not mentioned in the regulations are announced in the company's website.

Article 18 : ACCOUNTING PERIOD

The accounting year of the company starts as of the first day of January and ends on the last day of December.

Article 19 : DETERMINATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF PROFIT

The company observes the arrangements as provided for in the Turkish Commercial Code and capital market legislation with respect to distribution of profit.

After deducting the general costs of the company and miscellaneous amounts that must be paid or reserved by the company, such as depreciation, and also the taxes that should be mandatorily paid by the company as a legal entity from the Company's income found at the end of the activity period, the period profit remaining and as provided for in the annual balance sheet will be distributed in the following order after deducting the losses of the past years:

General Legal Reserve Fund:

a) 5% is reserved for legal reserve

fund. First Dividend:

b) From the remaining amount, the first dividend is reserved from the amount to be found by adding the amount of donations made within the year, if any, in accordance with the Turkish Commercial Code and Capital Market Legislation.

c) Following the deductions above, the General Assembly is entitled to decide for the distribution of the profit share among the members of the board of directors and officers, employees and workers, foundations established for various purposes and people and entities of similar nature. Within this scope, after meeting the requirements of the arrangements given in paragraphs (a) and (b), and after deducting 5% of the paid-in capital based on the amount assessed for the first dividend within the framework of the Capital Market Regulations, an amount that is equal to 5% of the remaining amount shall be payable to the holders of the founder dividend shares.

Second Dividend:

d) After deducting the amounts given in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) from the net period profit, the General Assembly is authorized to distribute the remaining portion in part or in entirety as the second dividend or to reserve the same as reserve fund reserved voluntarily under article 521 of the Turkish Commercial Code.

General Legal Reserve Fund:

e) One tenth of the amount, which is found after deducting a 5% profit share from the portion decided for distribution among the shareholders and others with a share in the profit, shall be added on the general legal reserve fund under article 519, paragraph 2 of the Turkish Commercial Code.

No decision may be made to reserve any other reserve funds, to transfer profit to the next year and to distribute a profit in the share to members of the board of directors and officers, employees and workers, foundations established for various purposes and others such persons and/or entities unless the reserve funds, which should be reserved under the provisions of the laws, are duly reserved and the share in profit as determined for the shareholders is distributed in cash and/or in the form of share certificates.

Share in profit is distributed equally among all the existing shares as of the date of distribution, regardless of the date any such share is issued and acquired.

The manner and time of distributing the profit decided for distribution shall be decided by the general assembly upon the proposal of the board of directors in this respect.

A decision made by the general assembly according to the provisions of the present articles of association may not be unmade.

Article 20 : ADVANCE PAYMENT ON DIVIDEND

The General Assembly may decide for the distribution of advance payment on dividend to the shareholder within the framework of the Capital Market Board regulations and the relevant legislation.

Article 21 : FOUNDATION FOR THE COMPANY’S STAFF

The company may create foundations with the nature as stipulated in article 522 of the Turkish Commercial Code to the benefit of the company’s officials, servants and employees or may participate in the foundations established within this scope.

Article 22 : LEGAL PROVISIONS

The provisions of the Turkish Commercial Code, Capital Market Law and the relevant legislation shall be applicable for matters not contained in these articles of association.
