TAB Gıda and Areas of Activity in Brief

TAB Gıda has been operating uninterruptedly since 1994 to contribute to the development of the QSR industry in Türkiye, bringing globally-recognized brands to consumers in the country, as well as making high-quality local flavors accessible to all through its own established brands.

1995: TAB Gıda gained momentum in 1995 after acquiring the master franchise rights of the globally renowned fast food chain Burger King® and bringing this legendary brand to Turkey for enthusiasts to enjoy. Burger King® has shortly become the go-to address for high-quality and affordable menus, enlarged its fan-base and expanded its restaurant chain throughout the country. As one of the leaders in Turkey's QSR industry, today Burger King serves its recipes at more than 750 restaurants all around the country.

2006: Having successfully established Burger King® as one of Turkey's most beloved brands, TAB Gıda subsequently introduced the world-famous Italian restaurant chain, Sbarro® to the country. Sbarro quickly gained popularity among Turkish consumers, and it currently brings a taste of Naples at 130 restaurants nationwide.

2007: TAB Gıda brought Popeyes®, one of world's most recognized quick service restaurant chains offering original Louisiana recipes, to Turkey. Consumers in Turkey embraced the crispy and freshly served flavors of Popeyes®. Today, Popeyes® serves at over 350 locations across the country.

2010: Arby's®, home to extraordinary and hearty food, began serving its delicious flavors to customers in Turkey under TAB Gıda' assurance. Arby's® has since become the preferred destination for meat lovers, offering the most special form of roasted beef and a wide range of unique products to its fans at nearly 130 restaurants.

2013: TAB Gıda leveraged its two decades of experience in the QSR industry to establish Usta Dönerci®, Turkey's premier döner restaurant chain. Usta Dönerci® brings together the best of traditional food with the quick service restaurant experience consumers demand today, and uphold its motto of "delicious meat from reliable sources, fast service, affordable prices" at over 160 locations throughout the country.

2019: TAB Gıda established its second brand Usta Pideci® to offer delicious pide selections and delicatessen products for local food enthusiasts to enjoy with ease of mind.

2022: TAB Gıda continued expanding its global brand portfolio by adding Subway®, one of world's most recognized quick-service restaurant chains. Information about Food Service Market

In the report shared by Deloitte in February 2023, the Turkish Food Service Sector consists of Full-Service Restaurants, Cafes and Bars, Fast Food / Home Delivery, Self-service cafeterias, buffets and kiosks.

Full-Service Restaurants (40%) FSR (full service restaurant) includes all establishments where the focus is on seated dining. They have higher food quality and table service than other types of service.

The category Cafés and Bars (26%) covers all establishments where the focus is on drinking (alcoholic or non-alcoholic beverages). While a wide range of snacks and meals are offered, it is common for consumers to order only drinks.

The Fast Food / Home Delivery (25%) category includes quick service restaurants, fast food and home delivery establishments. These establishments offer menus limited to items that can be prepared quickly. They tend to specialize in one or two main dishes such as hamburgers, pizza or chicken, but usually also offer drinks, salads, ice cream, desserts, etc.

Self-Service Cafeterias (4%) are establishments with no or very limited service staff. There is no service at the table, but counters where customers can choose the food they want and put it on their trays.

Buffets and Kiosks (5%) are small food service providers offering a limited range of products at low prices.

According to the category classification in this report, TAB Gıda is in the Fast Food / Home Delivery category in the food and beverage sector. This category accounts for 25% of the total food service market.

Fast food/home delivery restaurants appear to have an advantage in having home delivery systems already in place during COVID-19, when branches were only allowed to offer home delivery services. The continued expansion of fast food restaurants, growing consumer demand for cheap dining alternatives, and a young population positively impact the performance of fast food/home delivery restaurants and buffets and kiosks.

Risks and Assessment of the Governing Body

Information on the Company's risk management policy, if any, to be implemented against the foreseen risks:

Within the framework of the Enterprise Risk Management methodology of our main shareholder, TFI Group Companies, the Company works to identify and define its risks, evaluate the effectiveness of controls and the adequacy of designs, identify the process owners of the risks, and ensure that they are managed within the framework of action plans, and reduce risks to acceptable levels or to the risk appetite accepted by management. The risk management strategy defines the oversight and accountability of risk management at the Executive and Board of Directors ("Board" or "BoD") levels. Management is responsible for making prudent risk/reward decisions and actively identifying, assessing, rating, managing, and monitoring ongoing risk exposure.

Information on the employees and reports of the Early Detection and Management of Risk Committee, if established:

An Early Detection of Risk Committee was established with the Board of Directors' resolution dated 24.01.2024. The CEO is responsible for effective management of enterprise risks through implementation of a risk management framework, policies, and processes, including compliance with established risk limits and invited to all Risk Committees. Group Risk Director directly reports to Early Detection of Risk Committee and presents top tier risks on an enterprise-wide basis to the Committee six times per year or as circumstances require.

Forward-looking risks in terms of sales, productivity, new creation capacity, profitability, debt/equity ratio, etc:

The main risks to which the Company is exposed are monitored under five main categories. These are strategic, operational, compliance, financial (foreign exchange, liquidity, credit, interest, and commodity price risks) and technology risks.

STRATEGIC RISKS

Strategic risks relate to changes in demand and competition for products, as well as factors affecting market share. These factors include intense competition in the quick service restaurant sub-segment of the restaurant industry, pandemic risks, changes in consumer spending, reputational risks, negative publicity, boycott, macroeconomic factors such as unemployment, food inflation, energy prices and interest rates. Macroeconomic and industry-specific developments and the performance of restaurants are closely monitored. The strong presence of ecosystem companies in the market enables them to recognize market changes early and take quick and coordinated measures.

OPERATIONAL AND TECHNOLOGY RISKS

Our systems may be subject to damage or interruption caused by fire, natural disaster, power failure, telecommunications failure, unauthorized access, computer viruses, human error, or other causes. System errors, failures, delays in the order delivery channel, employee misconduct, unauthorized access or cyber security breaches may result in loss of sales and data. Preventive and detection controls are designed and effectively operated to eliminate these risks. Insurable risks are frequently assessed and transferred to third parties. Problems with third parties from whom we source food and other goods or services can disrupt or negatively impact our operations. While our ecosystem companies limit our supply risk for certain food products in Türkiye, a number of food and paper products, equipment and other restaurant supplies are sourced from suppliers, including restaurants operated by franchisees. Back-up plans have been established for most of these products, and only suppliers that meet quality standards to minimize food safety risk are included in our supply network.

COMPLIANCE RISKS

The development and operation of restaurants is subject to extensive laws and regulations concerning food safety. Changes in legislation and regulations are closely monitored by the auditing tools of the responsible departments. Preliminary assessments for compliance with food safety are carried out by the Quality Departments, and it is monitored whether remedial actions are taken by the relevant departments.
