Ozgorkey Icecek Yatirim A.S. in 2005 and of such shares which were acquired by Anadolu Group in return for the capital increase of the Company in 2005 (the aforementioned shares acquired in stated years are in the possession of shareholders holding A Groups shares), plus additional capital contributions made until such time including additional shares purchased, plus interest (at 6% per annum on US Dollar amounts including amounts determined by conversion from other currencies as specified below) minus all dividends paid until such time. In the event that free of charge shares are distributed up to the time of transfer of the shares which are subject matter of the Call Notice or the Sale Notice, these shares shall also be transferred, but no additional payment will be made for such shares. If payments of share purchase prices and the capital contributions including additional shares purchased are made in a currency other than US Dollar, the conversion to

US Dollar shall be made according to the average selling rate of US Dollar at the date of payments of such contributions by Anadolu Group as announced by three major banks, namely Ziraat Bank, Is Bank and Akbank.

Provided that the two paragraphs written above are reserved, in the event the direct control or indirect control through Affiliates which TCCC and/or Anadolu Group exercises on the persons who have partially taken over A and/or B Group shares (provided not to constitute the majority or the entirety thereof) pursuant to the Articles 17.2 (vii) and/or 17.3 below ends, the A and/or B Group shares taken over by the said persons shall be converted into C Group shares. In board of directors and general meetings of shareholders to be held for articles of association amendments to be made in that regard, shareholders holding A and/or B Group shares shall vote to the same effect and accordingly ratify the said decision also in special general meeting of shareholders to be held by shareholders holding A Group or B Group shares.
